HARRIMAN WEDDING NEWPORT COLONISTS BANNS ARE POSTED ON ANNUAL MIGRATION

Heir of Railroad Capitalist and His Fiancee Pay Call to Town Clerk.

BENEFIT FOR SICILIANS

LENOX, Sept. 7 .- William Averell Harman, son of the late E. H. Harriman, and Miss Kitty Lanler Lawrance filed notice of their intention to wed in Cooper Lawrance and her mother Sarah Mr. Harriman was also born in New York. He is 28, and gave his occupation as "railroading."

Miss Marie Witherell of Peekskill, will arrive to-morrow at the Hotel Aspinwall in her big Thomas racing auobile to visit Mrs. E. Banker Hilton and Miss Edna Hilton of Paris. Miss Witherell and Miss Katherine Dahlgren, rather noted driver of a racing chine, may meet in a test of speed. Irs. Frederic Crowninshield gave a sicale this afternoon at Konkapot tage for the benefit of the families of Gertrude Auld, operatic soprano, who is Mrs. Crowninshield's guest; Jay Rosenfield, violinist, and Felix Lamond, planist. Mrs. Crowninshield served tea

Col. and Mrs. Archibald Hopkins have arrived in Stockbridge on a visit to Miss Emily Tuckerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Cortlandt F. Bishop will tart for the Pacific coast on September make a motor trip through the Sierra Nevadas and Oregon.

Dr. and Mrs. Leigh Hunt are entertaining Prof. and Mrs. George Outeneth of New York.

Miss Ruth King of New York is registered at the Lenox Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Pinchot have returned to Milford, Pa., from Curtis

Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Ten Eyck Wendell and Ten Eyck Wendell, Jr., of Washington, Mrs. A. Bruce Dudley, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Barclay, Mr. and Mrs Arthur J. Morris of New York and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hastings and Miss Hastings of Montelair, N. J., arrived at Curtis Hotel to-day.

TO STANDARDIZE DANCES.

Instructors in Annual Convention Decide on Reforms.

American Society of Professor of Dancing at their thirty-eighth annual convention at the Martininge decided onvention at the Martinings on the same steps. Prof. Oskar Duenweg of Terre Haute, Ind., president of the society, said: "Modern dances have to undergo a reforming process. This society been instrumental through its members been supported to be Image. March Prince Adalbert was promoted to the report proved to be Image. March Prince Adalbert was promoted to the rank of captain in the navy and major in the army. Prince Adalbert joined the naval academy in Kiel when a boy, and has been actively connected with the Kalser's fleet ever since.

of standardization. Almost con-from 10 A. M. until late in the on the ball room vibrated under swing of the aeroplane filligree t a new entree, but a dance), waltz, the opera waltz, the d chase, the American gavotte, the folks' dance, and such ordinary ps as the fox trot and one step. Today there will be more of it,

ARRIVALS AT THE HOTELS.

McAlpin-Miss J. Cunningham, Miss altimore; Edward S. Darlington, West hester, Pa.; Mrs. W. W. Dickey, Nor-olk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wilcox, Toronto.

Waldorf-Astoria—Mrs. V. C. Crabbe, Pittsburg; Mrs. Henry A. Blair and daughter, Chicago; C. R. Capps, Norfolk, Va.; William M. Wood, Boston.
Vanderbilt—E. K. Casebeer, Des Moines; R. L. Williams, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fahey, Boston.

Marie Antoinette—J. P. Coleman,
Pittsburg; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rudd.

Media, Pa.
Albert—E. N. Watkins, Knoxville,
Tenn.; Albert A. Wood, Lowell, Mass.
Netherland—Mr. and Mrs. L. B.
Lillenthal, Atlanta; Miss A. K. Snell.

Chicago.

Knickerbocker—Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Schrader, Greenwood, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Boynton, Erie, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Staurton, Hamilton, Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Rooney, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Lewis, Memphis,

Dr. Cadman Loses an Assistant. The Rev. Dr. Ulysses Grant Warren one of the assistants to the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, pastor of the Central Congregational Church, Brooklyn, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Third Dutch Reformed Church of Syracuse and will begin his duties there

Blois & Eldridge have rented for E. J. Berwind his place known as Stock-ton Cottage, Bellevue avenue and Belleurt, Newport, R. I., to Miss Fanny hinson of New York, who has oc-

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD.

B. Colver to-day in the Presbyter-Church, Englewood, N. J. ey W. Fish, who will marry Miss bachelor dinner at the Meadow appointed Brazilian Minister to nna, and Mme. de Oliveira. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harkness Flag-er and their daughter, Miss Mary Harkness Flagler, who have been for the

Mrs. Charles Astor Bristed will give from Lenox to the Plaza for brief stay.

waiting Mrs. H. de Berkeley Parsons, at Rye, is now a guest of Mrs. Henry Steers at Port Chester, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Harley L. Stowell are he guests of Mrs. Henry E. Coe at and Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark mo-

Miss Elizabeth M. Bister, daughter of t, and Mrs John Bister, will be mar-ed to Dr. Charles M. McGinnis of Many Departures After Labor Day-1916 Horse Show Dates Changed.

Show Labor Day in 1916 will not be included in the dates of the exhibition This was decided upon to-day at a meet ing of the executive committee, which decided that the many other attractions notice of their intention to wed in the office of Town Clerk Cornelius J.

Broderick to-day. Miss Lawrance gave her age as 22 years. She was born in New York, her father being Francis

Copper Lawrance and her mother Sarah of the summer residents to leave after Labor Day and this year is to be no exception to the rule. Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont closed her season to-day, starting for New York with Miss Marie De Barril, She will go to San Fran-cisco later. Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe Wickes left for their winter home in New York, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, left York. Mr. and Mrs. Moses Taylor left on the steam yacht Wanderer. Henry J. Whitehouse and Oliver Perrin have gone

Whitehouse and Oliver Perrin have gone to the military camp at Plattsburg. Mrs. Whitehouse and children will close Eastbourne Lodge to-morrow and leave for Mount Kisco. Mrs. Perrin is also leaving to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas have left for the Adirondacks and Hamilton B. Tompkins has gone to Lake Sunapee. Mr. and Mrs. W. Goadby Loew closed their season to-day, leaving for New York on the Viking, with Francis Roche as their guest. Mr. Roche is to return at the end of the week.

week.
Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor also left to-day on the Noma for a trip as far as Marblehead. Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wilson are visiting in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Belmont arrived to-day. They are the guests of Mrs. Belmont's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Andrews.

Mrs. Belmont's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Andrews.

The funeral of Miss Caroline Ogden Jones at Midcliffe this afternoon was attended by a large number of the summer colony, the Rev. Stanley C. Hughes officiating. The body was shipped to New York.

PRINCESS ADALBERT A MOTHER Daughter Born to Kalser's Daugh ter-in-Law Soon Dies. Lendon, Sept. 7.—A daughter was born on Saturday to Princess Adalbert, wife of the third son of the Kaiser. The child died soon after its birth. The condition of the Princess is reported to be satisfactory.

Prince Adalbert and Princess Ade-laide of Saxe-Meiningen were married on August 26, 1914, the union being what is popularly called in Germany a "war wedding." Less than a month later the Prince was reported to have been killed in battle at Brussels, but the report proved to be false. Last March Prince Adalbert was promoted to the rank of cantain in the way and

NEW JEWISH CONGREGATION.

Will Hold Initial Services in Washington Heights To-night.

A new Jewish congregation has been organized in Washington Heights with Dr. Emanuel Schreiber as rabbi, and the initial services will be held in the build-ing at the northwest corner of Fort Washington avenue and 177th street with the beginning of the Jewish New Year this evening. The new congregation will be known as the West Branch of the Adath Israel Congregation of The Bronx. The services this evening, to-morrow and Friday will be conducted by Dr. Schreiber. Max Salzberg is cantor. laism and a frequent contributor to Jewish publications.

W. Keith (Paige); Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Senix (Lozier); Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kunle (Mercer); Mr. and Mrs.J. L. Dodge Gerecery; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dodge (Pierce Arrow); Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Brownell, Miss Estelle Knowles (Locomobile); Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Du Bosch, Carl Du Bosch, Jesse Du Bosch (Cadillac); Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Clappin, Jr., (Overland); Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Arnold (Packard); Mr. and Mrs. R. A. E. Caynaugh (Mercer); Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Arnold (Packard); Mr. and Mrs. R. A. E. Cavnaugh (Mercer); Mr. and Mrs. James MacMillan (Buick); Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kieth, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Moring, Chicago (Stutz); Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Simms. Henry Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Simms, Bessie Simms, Pittsburg (Packard).

Cooperstown, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Automobilists arriving at the O-te-sa-ga to-day were Mrs. Robison Johnson, Miss Bird, Connecticut; Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Safford, Stamford, N. Y. (Cadillac); Mr. and Mrs. William B. Leonard, New York (Pierce-Arrow); Mrs. L. S. Plant, Miss Plant, Miss Hortense Plant, Miss Amy Lurch, New York (Packard); Mr. and Larch, New York (Packard): Mr. and Lurch, New York (Packard); Mr. and Mrs. Lucien T. Warner, Mrs. A. T. Whitman, Bridgeport, Conn. (Packard); Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Vail, Binghamton, N. Y.; Mrs. N. F. Hankey, Cleveland (Oakland); Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Sifton, Mr. and Mrs. George Louis, Milwaukee (Overland); Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Eaton, Morristown, N. J. (Packard); Mrs. S. H. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Osborn, Cleveland (Franklin). Cleveland (Franklin).

MANCHESTER, Vt., Sept. 7.—Arrivals by automobile at the Equinox House to-day include Mr. and Mrs. J. Parker Kirlin, Miss Elizabeth Kirlin, New York (Stearns); Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Merritt, E. K. Merritt, Ormond Merritt, Ormond, Fla. (Pierce); Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Druy-fus, Staten Island (Packard); T. E. Nason, Fred C. Hayward, Boston (Buick); Mrs. E. Chesebrough, Brook-lyn; Mrs. L. B. Chesebrough, New York (Mitchell); Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Wheeler, Pridgeory, Conn. Mrs. Alice Benjamir, Bridgeport, Conn.; Mrs. Alice Benjamin,
Philadelphia; W. B. Phiney, Boston
(Hudson); Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Chamberlain, New York (Delauney); Mr. and Mrs. George S. Wright, Miss Wright,
Watertown (Plerce); Mr. and Mrs. Henry Forbes, C. Byron Sloane, New York (Packard); Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alexander, New York (Lozier).

THE SEAGOERS.

Sailing to-day on the Italia liner An-Mrs. Teresa U'itsse.
Glovanni De Vito.
Paolo Gulotta.
Sailing to-day on the Red Cross liner Florizel for Halifax:

Miss S. Emma Demarcst.

Ars. C. Malone.

Mrs. C. Malone.

Mrs. E. Ditridge.

Bar Harbor Eno Estate Sold, Lyman B. Kendall has bought the Eno property at Bar Harbor, Me., val-ued at $200,000. Seven acres in extent, it fronts on the shore between Eden road and Frenchman Bay. On the Mamaroneck.

Wedding of Miss Margaret Outhdaughter by a former marriage Philip E. Jennings, to Edward will take place to-day at the home of her mother in BenVt.

Always sure to report.

JEAN WEBSTER BRIDE OF GLENN F. M'KINNEY

Well Known Writer and New Helen Ring Robinson Charges Fortune Once Estimated at York Lawyer Married in New England Village.

WASHINGTON, Conn., Sept. 7.—In the little white Congregational church on the Green at noon to-day, surrounded by

WATERBURY, Conn., Sept. 7.—Automobilists arriving from New York at Hotel Elton to-day include Mr. and Mrs. P. Sanford Ross, Mrs. A. O. Headley, P. R. Headley (Cadillac); Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Keith (Paige); Mr. and Mrs. I. With autumn and Mrs. II. With given away by her brother, Samuel Webster. Joseph W. Lewis of St. Louis, who with his wife had induced

After the wedding a breakfast was served at the Lewis country home, immediately following which Mr. and Mrs. McKinney motored to New Haven, where they boarded a night train for Canada to spend the honeymoon in a camp of the bridegroom. On returning to New York they will live at 128 West Fifty-ninth street, Miss Webster's home. Among those at the wedding were Mrs. Charles L. Webster of New York, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. John L. McKinney of Pittsburg, parents of damaged in her reputation and has been injured and damaged in her reputation and has been injured and damaged in her reputation and has been informed and damaged in her reputation and has been informed and damaged in her reputation and has been informed and damaged in her reputation and has been informed and the state has been estimated at $40,000,000 a report filed recently in the Supreme Court by Stanley W. Dexter, referee plaintiff or some years has devoted herself and still continues to devote herself to the promulgation of measures of social and political reform. That by reason of aforesaid publication as to plaintiff to some years has devoted herself and still continues to devote herself to the promulgation of measures of social and political reform. That by reason of aforesaid publication as to plaintiff to some years has devoted herself and still continues to devote herself to the promulgation of measures of social and political reform. That by reason of aforesaid publication as to plaintiff to some years has devoted herself and still continues to devote herself to the promulgation of measures of voted herself and still continues to devote herself to the promulgation of measures of the will be state has been estimated at $40,000,000 a report filed recently in the Supreme Court by Stanley W. Dexter, referee to a suit for an accounting a report filed recently in the Supreme Court by Stanley W. Dexter, referee the suit of the stanley would have the state has been estimated at $40,000,000 and report filed recently in the Supreme Court by Stan

Mrs. McKinney is a graduate of Vas-sar in the class of 1901. She is a mem-ber of the Cosmopolitan, Woman's University and Pen and Brush clubs of iam street, New York, a member of the Princeton class of '91, the Larchmont

MISS LAMPREY A BRIDE.

Miss Arlein E. Lamprey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Lamprey, was married to Dr. Thomas Webster Edgar of this city last evening in St. Mary's Episcopal Church by the Rev. Francis A. Brown, the pastor. The bride. who walked to the chancel with her of yellow satin and chiffon and she car-ried a bouquet of yellow roses. The bridesmaids were the Misses Jean Webster Edgar and Elsie May Wittkower of this city, May Harrington of Brooklyn and Isabel Howard of Malone, N. Y. They were costumes of orchid colored and nile green taffeta and chiffon and carried because of white pages. Dr. Gilbert M. uquets of white roses. Dr. Gilbert M. best man. The ushers were Albert Paine, William Burns, Alberto Marzo and Sum-

Island, Miss Inez D. Rogers and William J. Hazel were married at Dudley Manor, Cummington, at 5 o'clock this afternoon. It was an outdoor affair, the wedding party standing under a bower of au-tumn leaves and flowers. Little Theresa Weisano was flower girl and the matron of honor was Mrs. John J. Pirie. The mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. John L. McKinney of Pittsburg, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph

JERSEY EDITOR SUED BY WOMAN SENATOR

Libel Against Summit 'Herald': Asks $5,000.

W. Lewis of St. Louis, Miss Ethelyn
McKinney, Miss Lena Winston and Mrs
E. C. Fox of New York.

Mrs. Mrs. Joseph
Mrs. Jose body and has otherwise been greatly injured and damaged."

SUFFRAGISTS WIN IN COURT. May Sell Pamphlets in Streets

Suffragists may now sell as many pamphlets as they wish on the streets without danger of being arrested. Magistrate Koenig of the 121st street police who walked to the chancel with ner father, wore a princess gown of white duchess satin trimmed with flounces of duchess satin trimmed with flounces of old point lace and finished with pearly old pearly one point face and ministed with pearly and the act of selling pamphlets did not concarried a bouquet of liles of the valley and white orchids.

Miss Dorothy Dunston of Hudson, N. Miss Dorothy Dunston of Hudson, N. Was maid of honor, Her costume was feeley, the woman lawyer who decrease, that the hand bill in the case, that the hand bill in the case, the case, that the hand bill in the case of Bishop Cusack's with the length Rev. Thomas F. Cusack, who leaves to become Bishop of the diocese of Albany, and presented him with a gold crozler and a purse of $2.500.

Dr. Willam S. Keegan, who presented the case, that the hand bill in the conditions of the law. Thomas F. Cusack, who leaves to become Bishop of the diocese of Albany, and presented the case, that the hand bill in the case, that the hand bill in the case, the case of the case, that the hand bill in the case of the

> This is the second time within a year that a suffragist has been arrested for distributing hand bills and a committee will be formed to interview Magistrate McAdoo about the ruling on this point. The suffragists think the police should be instructed not to make arrests in these cases and thus save further annoy

Suffrage Festival Postponed.

The suffrage garden festival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Untermyer, Greystone-on-the-Hudson, which Springfield, Mass., Sept. 7.—With myer, Greystone-on-the-Hudson, which many guests present from Manhattan was set for September 11, has been and Brooklyn and other points on Long postponed until October 9. The proceed of the entertainment will go to the postponed until October 9. The proceeds of the entertainment will go to the Woman Suffrage party, of which Mrs. Mary Garret Hay is the president. Mrs. Raymond Robins, president of the Na-tional Women's Trade Union League, will be one of the speakers.

MISS FURNISS'S WILL LEAVES ALL TO SISTER

$10,000,000 Now Said to Be Under $1,000,000.

Senator of Colorado, has started suit of 400 Park avenue, who died on August her relatives and a number of college for $5,000 against John W. Clift, owner 23 last at Lenox, Mass., and who was her relatives and a number of college classmates and friends, Jean Webster, author of "Daddy Long Legs," "Just Patty," "Dear Enemy" and other stories, became the bride of Glenn Ford McKin-letter which appeared in that paper Auchant, who died in 1871, leaving a for $5,000 against John W. Clift, owner 23 last at Lenox, Mass., and Willows one of the three daughters of William Ponsonby Furniss, the West Indian merbecame the bride of Glenn Ford McKin-letter which appeared in that paper Auchant, who died in 1871, leaving a for-Cunningham, Miss Ly. McCabe, Max Salzberg is cantor.

Dr. Schreiber, Who organized the new Congregation, is an extensive writer on formed by the Rev. James O. Emerson cused of introducing a bill in the Colorogate's Court yesterday.

The will gambling with an income to the State surviving sister, Mrs. Margaret Zimmer-

Senator Robinson's reasons for start- Accordingly Mrs. Zimmerman inherits "That by the foregoing publication as to the plaintiff defendant meant that plaintiff, as a State Senator of the State of Colorado, was the sponsor and sup-held up to public infamy and disgrace with and among her neighbors and the with and among her neighbors and the suit to compel the three sisters to acmany people of New Jersey, whom she has heretofore met and by whom she has heretofore been employed as a lecture of the suit to compel the three sisters to account for the funds under their control. Had Mrs. Zimmerman, who is now 83 years old, died before her sister Clemturer, and among all other good and entina, who was 78, the latter's resid-worthy people to whom she was in any wise known by reason of her activity among the Cathedral of St. John the in behalf of social and political reforms:

Divine, the George Junior Republic Asand has been prevented from transacting her business and has suffered great loss thereby; and has suffered in mind and ton. The Rev. Dr. William M. Grosbody and has otherwise been greatly
ton. The Rev. Dr. William M. Grosbody and has otherwise been greatly tenor of the Cathedral of St. John the Miss Furniss's will makes only one charitable bequest, a gift of $7,000 to the New York Orthopedic Dispensary

GOOD-BY TO BISHOP CUSACK. Parishioners Give a Gold Croster to Departing Prelate.

fended the case, that the hand bill in question was "political and educational in its nature."

Dr. Willam S. Keegan, who presented the crozler, spoke of Bishop Cusack's work in building up St. Stephen's parish in the last twelve years, while also rector of St. Leo's Church in East Twenty. sighth street. John McDonald presented eighth street. John McDonaid presented the purse, and other speakers were Wil-iam F. Foley, Charles H. Duffy, Dr. John G. Coyle, Michael J. Corcoran and Dr. Henry P. Swift. This afternoon Cardinal Farley and all the priests of the diocese of New York will participate in a solemn benediction service at St. Stephen's Church in honor of Bishop Cusack, at which 1,200 children of the parochial school will be present.

WOODWARD MONEY FOR ART. Brooklyn Institute Expected to B

Chief Beneficiary by Will. It is expected that the will of Col. Robert B. Woodward will be filed for probate shortly in the Surrogate's office of honor was Mrs. John J. Pirie. The bridesmaids were Misses Margaretta Loney of New York, Ethel Angie of Boston and Florence, Ethel, Edith and Natial Teerge of New York. The beston man was Homer Hazel, brother of the bridegroom. Mr. Hazel is an instructor in the Connecticut Literary Institute, After the holidays she will return to New York to begin an American town.

Miss Maud Allan, the dancer, came back to New York yesterday after an absence of two years, which she has spent circling the globe and giving performances. She is going on to London, however, to appear there in November. After the holidays she will return to New York to begin an American town.

Miss Maud Allan, the dancer, came $500,000 and close friends of Col. Wood-ward say that one-third of the amount will probably be bequeathed to the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, of which he was vice-president, and to which he had given $150,000 during the New York to begin an American town. Brooklyn.

KREISLER AT WORK ON NEW OPERA SCORE

Lively Demands for Rights. but Who Has Accepted It Is a Question.

GORITZ AT SCHROON LAKE

this country for another season, is not going to trust exclusively to his recipits as a player in concert for all his profits. He is hard at work on the group of an exclusive state of the source of the sour advance was altogether due to the phenomenal success of his concerts, which last season met with a degree of finan cial appreciation altogether unprecedented. Whether or not this popu-

he may afford to regard his concerts as of secondary importance. Another musician who is interested in the fate of comic opera is Otto Goritz of the Metropolitan Opera House. He is at Schroon Lake putting the finishing touches to the libretto which he composed several years ago. He was then too little confident of his knowledge of English to attempt a translation of the work into the vernacular. But the He was then English text is now ready for produc-

To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN-Is it cossible that Ned Wayburn intends to make all the changes in the former New Theatre that his picture of that building suggests? I have seen the poster, which leaves little hope that the institution will be carried on along the same lines designed by the Founders and put into practice by Mr. Ames.

Judging by Mr. Wayburn's picture of the Century Theatre as it will appear next week, the roof is to be occupied by young women rether forward young young women, rather forward young women at that, who sit composedly there while their—their limbs hang over and in one or two cases seriously interparticularly bold minx sits quietly on the corner of this famous structure and draws back her skirts in order that the public may have an unobstructed view of the stocking which falls down—with the usual contents of stockings inside— over a bit which was the delight of those who have admired the Renaisthose who have admired the Renaissance purity of the architect's design.

Other young women in what could not by the most generous misuse of the word be described as dress loll and lounge on the roof, while numerous silhouettes of young men in evening dress appear to be staring at them from across the street. The building seems to be bathed in a blue mist, evidently Edw om the electric lights, although the from the electric lights, although the general impression of the picture is that all hands would be more appropriately employed in painting all the landscape as red as they could. And is this to happen to the new theatre

DRAMA LEAGUER. Constance Collier owns the English ty's Theatre in London.

Ernest Lawford is to succeed Kenneth had been extremely varied.

Douglas the English actor who was on

One of the young actors who ought just now to be settling down to a long engagement in New York is facing a from which, singularly enough, he was only rescued after a long apprenticeship early last spring. He was practically unknown in this city until he literally gained a reputation over night. These are the days of few young leading a state. are the days of few young leading actors of course, but this youth, still in the twenties, revealed such unusual physical gifts and talent that he found himself in But managers are now entirely cor tent to allow him to leave New York.

DR. NEARING'S POST UNFILLED. report the decision at the next metting. So far the meetings have resulted in with little difficulty after his first metropolitan success there was not a man-ager who was not importuned to release him on the ground that another impresario had offered him a larger salary. In the course of half a dozen engage-ments he had been with all the New Managers are always capable of uniting against the actors, however hostile they may be on other points. They heard that every one had been, so to speak, played off against the other for the sake of an increase of salary after a contract for a fixed sum had been signed and rehearsals begun. It was signed and rehearsals begun. It was their willingness to unite for their own protection that accounts for the departure of this young actor for the road when he might under ordinary circumstances have been remaining in New York.

See York

"Young America" at the Astor Theatre

will move next door to the Galety Mon-day night. The change is made to allow Cohan & Harris to bring George M. Cohan's latest play, "Hit the Trail Halliday," with Fred Niblo, into the Astor Theatre.

William Elliott has postponed the opening of "Just Boys" at the Comedy Pheatre from to-night to next Monday a return engagement at the Booth Theare next Tuesday evening. New Wayburn's "Town Topics" will open at the Century Opera House Thurs-day evening, September 16. A dress re-hearsal will be given the preceding eve-Messrs. Grossmith and Laurillard have

MICHAEL JENKINS DIES; MISS BURKE IN FINAL WAS CATHOLIC LEADER BREAK WITH FROHMAN

President of Atlantic Coast Moving Picture Contract Up-Line and Friend of Cardinal Gibbons.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 7 .- Michael Jenkins for many years identified with the development of Baltimore and known throughout the country in financial,

DR. GROSS ALEXANDER.

Editor of the "Methodist Review"

Dies in California.

where he had been called because of the lines of his child.

Dr. Alexander was born in Sotossville, Ky., sixty-three years ago, and was a graduate of the University of Louisville and Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J. In 1906 he became editor of the Methodist Review, published here by the Southern Methodist Publishing House, and for eighteen years previous was professor of New Testament interpretation in Vanderbitt University.

He was author of many books, essays and articles on religious subjects, in-cluding the history of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, of which he became the book editor at the same time he was made editor of the Review. Dr. Alexander was well known in New York city. He was pastor of a church at New Brighton, Staten Island, in 1877. He was one of the secretaries of the last six general conferences of the Southern Mehodist Church.

LIEUT.-COL. H. C. SCHUMM. Was Placed on the Retired List Last May.

Lieut.-Col. Herman C. Schumm, U. S.

A., retired, died yesterday at the Walter Reed General Hospital from diseases contracted two years ago in the Philippine Islands. He was 49 years old. After being graduated from West Point in 1887 Col. Schumm was appointed to the Third Artillery. He was steadily promoted until he became a Lieutenant-Colonel of the Coast Artillery in 1911. He was Collector of Customs at Baracoa, Cuba, from 1898 to 1900. He attended the imperial German manœuvres in Silesia in 1906 as aid to Gen. William P. Duvall. On May 14 last he was placed on the retired list

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7 .- Edward B. Moore, former Commissioner of Patents. heart trouble after a month's illness.

He was born in North Anson, Me.,
December 25, 1851, and was for many He was born in North Anson, Me.

He was born in North Anson, Me.

December 25, 1851, and was for many years in the diplomatic service and the Patent Office. He negotiated an impact of the productions will include a vertex years in the diplomatic service and part of the productions will income portant patent treaty with Germany in sion of "La Veille Egilse," portant patent treaty with Germany in sion of "La Veille Egilse," portant patent treaty with Germany in sion of "La Veille Egilse," Maurier's novel "Peter Ibbetson" and ducted similar negotiations with Russia, will probaby give the play at His Maj-

The Rev. Bernard A. Delaney. "Hands Up."

John Hines, who is now singing Youth in "The Passing Show of 1915" at the Winter Garden, has revealed a barytone voice of uncommonly fine quality and an unusual care and skill in acting.

due to blood poisoning winter the development of the prispelas. Father Delaney, who under Mr. Weil's direction.

Was 25 years old, was ordained to the priesthood in St. Patrick's Cathedral on May 29 last. He was born in Yonkers and educated at Cathedral College and the company of the

St. Joseph's Seminary, Dunwoodle

Joseph A. Boyce, 38, a Long Beach contractor, died Sunday at the Flower Hospital after an operation. He had many large building contracts in Long Beach and Long Island City, and many Beach and city contracts, among them Eliminate Two Courses.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—The failure of the board of trustees of the University of Pennsylvania to find a suitable successor to Dr. N. Scott Nearing, the deposed professor in economics of the Wharton School, will cause the elim-ination of two courses in that depart-ment. These are the graduate course ination of two courses in that depart-ment. These are the graduate course in statistical economics, of which Dr. Nearing was the instructor, and a course of lectures which were delivered upper classmen only.

It had been believed that Dr. C. E.

Reitzel had been selected to fill Dr. Nearing's position and handle all of his work. The following letter addressed university during the coming academic year, I would say that you are in no sense to be regarded as Professof Nearwill be dropped from the roster for the instructors and assistants already our staff, under your direction.'

TERRACE GARDEN IS CLOSED.

opper East Side Catering Estab-

Adolph Suesskind, proprietor of Terrace Garden, in Fifty-ninth street, be-tween Lexington and Third avenues, made an assignment yesterday to Bernard Stahl, proprietor of the Kaiser-Hof, at Broadway and Thirty-ninth street. The liabilities were placed at between $150,000 and $200,000 and the nominal assets at about the same amount. Abraham Gruber represented the creditors.

which has done the catering for many of New York's political and other affairs in the past fifteen years, is ascribed to the financial conditions of the country at large.

The failure of the big enterprise sets Efforts at Reconciliation of Actress and Company.

Efforts to effect a reconciliation be tween "illie Burke and the Charles Frohman company have failed. The rock profits. He is hard at work on the score of an operetta which will soon be ready for the publishers. Who has accepted the new composition has not yet been announced, although there has already been a lively demand for the rights. Kreisler is said to have written the work in the vein of the lightest Vienness music.

None of the other musicians who have been in this country during the last season has profited by the war to the extent that the Austrian violinist has. His fee has now increased to $2,000 for a single appearance, which is unprecedented in the case of a violinist. This advance was altogether due to the phewe would have been very glad to under ther conditions,"

It was learned yesterday trustworthy source that Miss Burke was the first to broach the matter of re-instatement after she had received delarity will continue, with the wound in his foot altogether healed and his war experiences gradually fading into the perspective of history, remains to be seen.

But with his comic opera a success ture play will be shown at the Knicker-bocker' Theatre. She will work under the direction of Thomas H. Ince.

GARDEN THEATRE LEASED.

Smanuel Reicher to Present Playe for the Wage Earners.

Emanuel Reicher will establish in No-mber what he terms the American People's Theatre, designed primarily for the presentation of plays having a di-rect appeal to the wage earning playgoers. The first production will be "The Weavers," by Gerhart Hauptmann. Mr. Reicher has leased the Garden Theatre in Madison Square Garden for eight months for this purpose. A scale of prices ranging from 25 to 75 cents will prevail.

will prevail.

Among other productions planned in Among other productions planned in conjunction with this movement will be the first presentation in America of "When the New Wine Blooms," by Ejornson; "Uncle Vanja," by Anton Tschechow, and "Rosmersholm," by Henrik Ibsen. There will also be a series of plays by American authors. series of plays by American authors. Hedwig Reicher is announced as one of the principal members of the com-

E. W. WEIL AS A PRODUCER. Back From Europe With Rights to

Many New Plays.

thazar," by the same writer; "The Young Austria, Italy and other European Bride," by Jean Berton; "Her Side of countries. His experience in patent law the House" and "Ann," two comedies produced by Sir Charles Wyndham, and "Le Mannequin Amoreux," by Claude Berton. In the motion picture field Mr. Weil has obtained from Mme. Berton Grace George in "The New York Idea" when that play is acted at the Playhouse.

Louis Wesley, who used to be an amusing figure in the musical plays at the Casino but has been for years in vaudeville, has succeeded Ralph Herz in "Hands Up."

"Hands Up."

YONKERS, N. V., Sept. 7.—The Rev. Berion the American rights to 'Amour d'Apache," "The Explanation," "A Bank Holiday in an Automobile," "The Art of Making Od New" and "One Penny."

Althur Bouchier and his company will come to New York on January 15 in The Green Flag" and two new plays

MUSIC PROBLEM DEADLOCKED.

Theatre Managers and Union Men

Beach and Long Island City, and many State and city contracts, among them one to build a new boardwalk at Long Beach. He was president and preprietors of the Public Works Contracting Company, 110 West Thirty-fourth street. Company, 110 West Thirty-fourth street.

MARRIED.

not to agree to these demands and

McKINNEY - WEBSTER -September 1. 1915, at Washington-Green, Conn., by the Rev. James O. Emerson, Jean Webster to Glenn Ford McKinney

BOYCE - Joseph A. Services at "THE FUNERAL CHURCH," 241 West Twenty-third street (Frank E. Campbell Building), Wednesday afternoon, HAYNES.—September 5. 1915, Nellie Haynes, nee O'Brien. Services Stephen Merritt's Chapel, 223 Eighth avenue, near Twenty-first street, Wednesday, 1:30.

SBELL.—Suddenly, on Saturday morn-ing, September 4, 1915, at her home, 123 West Eighty-first street, Effic Kim-

Services private on Tuesday. Interment at Springfield, Mass. Please omit

JAMES.—At East Orange, N. J. September 6, 1915, William Scott James, husband of Irene Butler, aged 40 years.
Funeral services will be held at his late home, 60 Glenwood avenue, Thursday, September 9, at 11 A. M. Interment private.

PINKERTON.—At her residence, Mount Kisco, N. Y., on Monday morning. September 6, Ellen Herndon Arthur, beloved wife of Charles Pinkerton.

Funeral services will be held at the residence of her uncle, John E. McRiroy, 170 State street, Albany, N. Y., on Wednesday, September 8, at 2 o'clock P. M. Washington, Baltimore and PhRadelphia papers please copy.

Philadelphia papers please copy. TAGART.—On Sunday, September 5, at Bath, England, Anna Maria, wife of William H. Tagart and daughter of late Samuel Twyford and Josephine